Councilmember McVey-will attend TRPC this Friday

Councilmember Kemp-will attend TPB tomorrow

Councilmember Arnbrister- Emergency management update

Councilmember Baker-nothing new

Councilmember Roth-nothing new

Bill Cameron/City Attorney-spoke about the water line easement on Rainier Rd. property that serves Charm Rd. The new owner wants to log and develop but Ron and Jim have drafted a letter with stipulations to protect that water line.

Tami Justice/Clerk-nothing new

Jim Gibson/City Planner-absent

Captain Watkins-spoke about stats seeing an increase during December which is normal.

Talked about open positions within the sheriff's office and what they are doing to fill those.
Mayor Shaw-will attend the first Mayor's forum this Friday. Excited to meet some of the Newly elected mayors.

New Business

Question was brought up by code enforcement, who has noticed an uptake in RV living around town, whether we should handle these on a complaint basis or if we should do a sweep of all that we are aware of. After much discussion, council deemed it necessary to remove the residents that are living in an RV on property within city limits to protect the public water system. Rene' will begin the process.

Old Business

None

Adjournment

Meeting was adjourned at 6:01 pm Kemp/McVey 5/0
